

Bread Basket update

november, 2009

Keeping Hope Alive

Bread Basket just completed another great month of ministry and outreach. To date, people have come to Bread Basket over 8,500 times in 2009. Due to the downturn in the local economy, we are seeing more and more people coming to us for help.

Thanks to many of you, Bread Basket continues to provide hope, a substantial supply of groceries and an encouraging word from the Word of God. The Lord has been faithful to make it possible for Bread Basket to keep its doors open for 27 years. Thank you for joining us and help make Bread Basket a reality!

Some Good News to Report

Last month, we sent a letter stating that Bread Basket had seen a drop in its income. At that time we were behind about $25,000 what was needed. Many of you responded and with the help of a couple of foundations, we are back where we need to be!

Bread Basket is in the fortunate place that all we need are funds to meet our General Operations Budget. Last year, we paid off our building and we are debt free. Because we keep our costs low, we can provide groceries and ministry for about $15 per household. With the cost of things these days, that is a great deal. Thank you to all of you who joined us in our time of need!

McKinney Church Great Day of Hope

Once again, our good friends at McKinney Church sponsored Bread Basket by sending an incredible team of volunteers to assist us with a facility facelift. Keeping the grounds looking good is almost impossible. This year, we reworked all of our flower beds to be weed less, painted concrete floors, repacked food and replanted flower pots. The grounds have never looked better and are easier to keep looking that way. We would like to thank everyone from McKinney for all you did to make Bread Basket look good!

Christ Chapel Sponsors Food Drive

On Sunday October 18th, Christ Chapel sponsored its annual Food Drive. Bread Basket was privileged to receive thousands of pounds of food collected from the church body.

Food drives have become essential for Bread Basket to meet the needs of so many people. While we are members of our local food bank, they also have problems garnering enough food to meet the needs of so many agencies.

Thank you Christ Chapel for all you do to feed the hungry!
